

Immanuel Lutheran Church May 2025 Newsletter

Where is Jesus now? I've heard various answers from Christians young and old. He's everywhere. He's in my heart. He's in his Word and Sacraments. He's at the right hand of God. Those answers are each true in their own ways, but each could be misunderstood. Saying Jesus is everywhere could become an excuse to avoid gathering with other members of his body, as his Church. Saying Jesus is in my heart could make faith no more than my own subjective experience. Either of the remaining answers is incomplete without the other to balance the truth it expresses. Yes, he's at the right hand of God (in his fully divine-human reality, his immortal body still showing how he suffered), but he's not avoiding his people. He is still with us through the means of grace.

One of the most overlooked or neglected days in the Church Year helps us understand where Jesus is now (and what he expects us to do as we wait for his promised return). Ascension Day, being 40 days after his resurrection from the dead, always falls on a Thursday, so unless its is "transferred" to the following Sunday, most of us pay little attention to it. In years past, our circuits sometimes gathered for a joint Ascension service. This year, we will have our own Divine Service for the Ascension of Our Lord on May 29 at 7 PM. This is a joyous yet poignant occasion. Our Lord has accomplished what he came to earth to do, so he victoriously goes home, but that means he's not with us in the same way he was with his disciples. On the other hand, now he becomes available to his Church throughout the world in marvelous, miraculous ways.

Until he comes again with glory to judge the living and the dead, he sits at the Father's right hand, ruling all things in heaven and earth for the good of his Church. Both current events and world history make this hard to believe, but it's true, nonetheless. Week by week, and year by year, the holy Christian Church lives out what she confesses in the creeds. We believe in the Father, maker of heaven and earth, so we follow the pattern he set, working six days a week and resting to be refreshed by his grace on the other. We believe in his Son, our Lord, Jesus Christ, so we spend nearly half of each year, Christmas through Ascension, reviewing all that he did here on earth in its proper order. We believe in the Holy Spirit, so we rely on his work in us for the rest of the year, growing in grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Stewardship Thoughts – May 2025

Sanctification, vocation and stewardship-themed bulletin blurbs keyed to the lectionaries.

Stewardship in the Body of Christ

Baseball season is upon us. The southern images of spring training give way to the pageantry of Opening Day. On that day, the hopes and dreams of every major league team, player and fan focus on doing whatever it takes to get to the Fall Classic, the World Series. Baseball is a secular way that so many of us confess that hope “springs” eternal.

With all of this in mind, baseball can also teach us a new perspective about stewardship. Think about the game itself. Baseball is a team sport. The home team faces off against the visitors. Yet while it is a team game, there are repetitive, individual confrontations that take place within the game. The baseball game cannot start without the individual pitcher against the hitter. Once the batted ball is in play, the battle is between the ability of the fielder against the speed of the baserunner. Once there is a runner on base, an attempt to steal a base pits the runner against the catcher. A base hit into the outfield pits the outfielder against a runner trying to score.

Baseball is a team game with many smaller units at play. Without all those smaller units working together and achieving their tasks, the team will lose.

Romans 12 puts our stewardship of the Gospel in a similar setting. The church is certainly described as a team, if you will.

Verse 3: “For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned.” This is where the Body of Christ is really seen as a team. No one member of the baseball team can win the game by themselves. In the same way, no one part of the Body of Christ can accomplish stewardship of the Gospel alone. The pastor cannot. The congregational chair cannot. The lead soprano in the choir cannot. But each of these individuals have been added to the local congregation to be built into a team that can win the victory with Jesus.

Verses 4–5: “For as in one body we have many members, and the members do not all have the same function, so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another.” In baseball, the pitcher pitches. The catcher catches. The hitter hits. When a pitcher attempts to hit, the result is usually not very pretty. Catchers often do not excel at running the bases. The hitter usually does not do well when they are sent to the mound to pitch. Every member of the Body of Christ has a unique set of abilities and functions. Not everyone preaches. Not everyone leads. Not everyone sings well. Yet when the congregation assembles together as a team, it can succeed in ways unattainable by the individual.

Verses 6–8: “Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; if service, in our serving; the one who teaches, in his teaching; the one who exhorts, in his exhortation; the one who contributes, in generosity; the one who leads, with zeal; the one who does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness.” Each member of the team has a role to play. Abilities and opportunities are entrusted to the individual members of the Body of Christ to be used for the ultimate purpose of stewarding the Gospel for the glory of God and the benefit of the neighbor. The one preaching is no more or less important than the others. The one serving or the one teaching, the leader or the merciful one — all are equally important in the faithful stewardship of all that the Lord has entrusted to the Body of Christ. All this stewardship is for the sake of the other!

A baseball team can have five All-Star pitchers but cannot win if the hitters do not hit. The best lineup in the league will struggle if the pitchers cannot get anyone on the other team out. Pitchers need the defense behind them to play well. Coaches need to lead well. When they all work together, you have a winning baseball team. When the Body of Christ has all its members faithfully stewarding the unique individual talents that have been entrusted to them, the victory goes to Jesus! This is the goal of faithful stewardship! It is all about Jesus!

LWML NEWS

LWML will meet on Thursday, May 15 at 7pm in the church basement. Mary Ann Niedens will have the opening devotion, and Carolyn Rennegarbe will have the topic. She will share a video about creation, "In Six Days". Please join us!

ALUMNI AND FRIENDS

The Alumni & Friends will host a yard sale at the school again this year. Funds are raised for the school. It supports a community event and helps area families. This project is a lot of work and the Board needs as much help as we can get. Many thanks to the teachers and students of Immanuel, who have helped move tables to the gym over the years! This in itself is a big job and the kids make quick work out of something that would take our small group hours to accomplish. This task is planned for May 21st. Donations may be taken to the gym beginning that afternoon. We plan to work as often as is necessary to get the donations displayed and priced. Items are taken to the area where they will be sold and the pricing is completed later. This creates a more consistent pricing process and opens the opportunity to volunteer to a much broader group. Thank you to everyone who has donated in the past or plans to donate this year. Last year over $3,000 was raised through your donations! For the past two years, sale hours were held during two weekends (Thursday, Friday and Saturday). We are trying to schedule sale dates and times. However, we need to see when volunteers are available before final decisions are made. During sale days, volunteers will be needed for bagging, occasional straightening of items and cashiers. There will be a sign-up sheet at church or you can speak with any Alumni and; Friends board member. At this time, we are looking at the following dates: May 29, 30 and 31, June 7, 8, and 9. Refreshments will be available for volunteers. Last year, after the sale was over, we opened the school on Monday night so that people could come and take what they could use. It was well attended and benefitted several low-income families even more! Others came and gave donations for things they found. This worked out very well and there was a smaller number of items than we have had in past years that we moved forward to another group to use. Please consider volunteering for this project. Any amount of time helps! Thank you in advance!
